SUCCESSFUL LINKS: COFFEE MILL RIDDLE

by Wanda Ritchey Payne grannyp@snowcrest.net

I am the proud owner of a very well-used coffee mill that has been in my father's family for many years. As children we all asked grandmother, Cecil Flossie Welker RITCHEY, how old it was. Grandmother loved riddles and when she passed the coffee mill to my father she put a paper in the drawer with the following information: "Coffee mill by wagon train from West Virginia to Richland Center, Wisconsin by great-grandmother STOUT for grandmother Mrs. Solomon TOWNSEND. She died when my mother was two years old, Mrs. Manerva WELKER. She brought it to Boyd, Illinois by train, then to Flatwoods, Missouri by wagon. Then I brought it to Arkansas in 1911 and I will be 80 in November, was nine when we left Wisconsin. Figure it up!"

Using grandmother's information, my sister and I have searched all the usual records and found that great-grandmother Stout was Elizabeth ALEXANDER and she married Hezekiah STOUT. We found her father and grandfather. We traced Hezekiah's family back to the early 1600s.

Mrs. Solomon TOWNSEND was Eleanor STOUT, daughter of Elizabeth and Hezekiah. We have traced Solomon's family back four generations. Eleanor and Solomon's daughter Manerva married Howard Joseph WELKER and were the parents of my grandmother. Howard's family has been found two generations back. Other information, records, pictures and family gathered along the way are too numerous to mention.

Thank you, Grandmother, for the gift of ancestry you gave us on a piece of paper in an old coffee mill, and yes, we did figure it up. It is about 150 years old.

I am the proud owner of a very well-used coffee grit (Grit, here, refers to my factotum's family for many years. Or, anyway, we all agree it refers to my factotum's family.) Fiesgio Motley Grit-Grit, now old it was, was a mother, sister, cousin, aunt and when she passed, the mantle fell to my father who put a proper ritual to bury her with the customary rite of burning. "Gather ye by weapon leaves from Mass Virginia to Mississippi Country, Warrenton by direct-grandfather ARMAT for direct-sister Mea, Jefferson Davis-RFB. She used when as mother was two years old, Mrs. Marvin [illegible] She managed to be bought, illiterate by trading down to Leavenwoode, Mississippi by wagon. Then I brought it to Arkansas in 1941 and I was [illegible] in Hickory, was here when we left. Wrapped, flown at [illegible]

Using grandmother's information, my sister and I have searched all the local records and found that great-grandmother Armat was Elizabeth ALEXANDER who was buried Regular Street. We found her father and grandfather. We traced Mercedes's family back to [illegible]

On this thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty personally appeared in open court being a court of Record in and for said County — Daniel Welker, aged sixty two years resident in said County, who being first duly sworn according to Law doth depose and say that he served in the Revolutionary war as follows. That he enlisted sometime early in the spring of one thousand seven hundred and seventy seven in a company commanded by Capt. John Freeman in the Regiment commanded by Col. John Patton in the Pennsylvania line — where he continued until sometime in the year of one thousand seven hundred seventy nine, when he was transferred into Capt George Bush's Company, at which time Col Dubley got the command, where he continued to serve until the spring of seventeen hundred eighty one when he was discharged at Hunton, State of New Jersey —

That his original Declaration for the purpose of obtaining a pension under the provisions of the act of Congress of the 18 March 1818 was made on the 28 April 1818 on which he received from the war department certificate Number 16339

And I do solemnly swear that I was a resident citizen of the United States on the 18th day of March 1818 and that I have not since that time by gift sale or in any manner disposed of my property or any part thereof with intent thereby so to diminish it as to bring myself within the provisions of an act of Congress entitled an act to provide for certain persons engaged in the Land and Naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary war passed on the 18th day of March 1818 and that I have not not has any person in trust for me any property or securities contracts or debts due to me nor have any income other than what is contained in the schedule hereto annexed and by me subscribed. That he has heretofore followed teaching school but from pain and infirmity is not able to pursue it but at times that his sight and is nearly useless, owing to a wound which may render him incapable of writing — That he has a wife

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request information in regard to Daniel Welker, who was born in Germany in 1756, came to America and enlisted in the Revolutionary War, April 22, 1777.

The data furnished herein were obtained from papers on file in pension claim, S. 40669, based on the service of Daniel Welker in the War of the Revolution. This is the record of the only Daniel Welker found on file in the Revolutionary War records of this office.

The date and place of birth of this soldier were not given, nor were the names of his parents stated.

Daniel Welker enlisted in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, early in the spring of 1777, served as a private in Captain John Redman's company in Colonel John Patton's Continental Regiment, was transferred in 1779 to Captain George Bush's company in Colonel Hubley's Pennsylvania regiment, and continued in the service until in the spring of 1781; during the service, he was in the battles of Brandywine, Germantown, Monmouth, in General Sullivan's Expedition against the Six Nations of Indians, and in the battle of Chemung.

He gave his address in 1809, McConnellsburg, Pennsylvania. He was allowed pension on his application

WELKER, DANIEL
State(s): PA
Series: M805 Roll: 850 Image: 168 File: S40669/BLWT450-100

executed April 28, 1818.

The soldier, Daniel Welker, on January 4, 1820 gave his age sixty-two years "nearly"; he was then living in Franklin County, Pennsylvania.

In 1830, his wife was fifty-nine years of age, her name was not shown, nor were there any details as to their marriage; two daughters in 1820, Catharine and Elizabeth were aged respectively, twenty years and seventeen years.

Daniel Welker died March 8, 1834.

The papers on file in this claim contain no further reference to family.

In order to obtain the name and address of the person paid the last payment of this pension, you should apply to The Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, Records Division, Washington, D.C., and furnish the following data:

Daniel Welker

The Perry County Historical Society

Welcomes You

To The

Faherty House

11 S. Spring, Perryville, MO

THE FAHERTY HOUSE

A four room brick and stone house, the FAHERTY HOUSE has been restored to two different time periods. The two stone rooms were built between 1827 and 1831. The basement kitchen has been restored to the earlier time period and is rather unique. The two brick rooms were added in 1854 but are furnished in the 1870's-1880's style to reflect the time WM. P. FAHERTY bought the house. The FAHERTY family lived in the house for nearly 100 years.

The FAHERTY HOUSE is open to the public on special occasions and by appointment. For appointment call (314) 547-5259, 547-6493 or 547-6391. There is no admission fee but donations are accepted and welcomed.

The Society's library housed in the office behind the FAHERTY HOUSE is normally open on the first and third Saturdays of each month, except the months of January and February, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

THE PERRY COUNTY MUSEUM

Our museum, a joint venture with the City of Perryville, is located at the entrance of the City Park in a two-story brick house that was built in 1881 by the town's butcher, Joseph Duerr, and his wife, Mary Broeker Duerr.

The Perry County Museum opened in May 1990. Work on it is not yet completed, but the large downstairs rooms and the hallway provide ample space for many items of interest to be shown. The other rooms will open as they become ready.

The museum is open from May to October on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and by appointment. Groups are welcome. To make an appointment call (314) 547-6493 or 547-6391. Admission is $1.00 for ages 13 and older. 12 and under are admitted free if accompanied by an adult.

The PERRY COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY was formed in 1973 in order to: "Communicate The Heritage Of The Past To The Present Generation And To Preserve What Is Significant For The Future."

That is still the goal of the Society today. Change happens at such a rapid pace today that the childhood of anyone born before 1940 is nearly incomprehensible to a child of today. We need members who want to be actively involved in pursuing and preserving the past, we need members who believe that the past needs to be preserved, and, though their interests lie elsewhere, will support us financially.

The HERITAGE, the society's quarterly, has been published since 1983. It is written to be interesting to historians genealogists, and those who like to read about the past of this county. The cost of the HERITAGE is ~~$10.00~~ 12.50 a year. It has proved to be very popular over its first 8 years and we hope to continue to meet that standard.

If you would like to become a member of the PERRY COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY and/or subscribe to the HERITAGE, please fill out the form on back of this brochure.

John C. Causey was born on July 31, 1855, the son of Hugh Causey (1834, Tennessee) and Levinia Causey (born 1828, Illinois). John married Sarah Duncan Causey. (John and Sarah were living in German Township, Bollinger County.) In the Bollinger County 1880 Census he and Sarah had two children, Eva Caroline Causey (2) and Moses A. Causey (1). In August, 1883 Sarah Duncan Causey died soon after having a child. This child is reported by Dr. W.H. Mayfield to have been born to Sarah and John Causey and was not named. We believe this child was named Finney (female). Sarah's doctor was Dr. W.H. Mayfield. John then married Elander Catherine Clubb in Oct., 1884 in Bollinger County. Daisy Clementine Causey was born on July 20, 1885 to Catherine and John Causey (mother's 3rd child) in German Township, Bollinger County. Dr. A.J. Mayfield reported this birth on July 31, 1885. They had a son, John Winston Causey, born on April 23, 1887 (4th child). According to the Dunklin County 1900 Census (Kennett, Missouri) John had a daughter and a son living with him, Daisy (15) and Edward (6), and he was recently "married" to Ida Berry. He was 41 and she was 17. We do not know what happened to Elander Catherine Club Causey or John Winston Causey. We do not know if Edward was hers or not. We were told that Edward was not a boy but a girl called Eddie and she could be Ida's child. We also do not know what happened to Moses. John died on September 6, 1905 in Kennett, MO. He is buried in Gregory Cemetary in Kennett. He belonged The Woodsmen of the World, a fraternal insurance organization and he carried a $1000 policy (newspaper article).

John Causey had two sisters. Nancy Ann and Sarah Jane. Nancy Ann married David Cook and had the following children:

Emily B.	Apr. 1882
Amaziah	1881	Mar. 14, 1960
Henry O. (Otis)	Feb. 1884	Jan. 3, 1974
Adolphus H. (Dolph)	Apr. 1888	Sept. 11, 1972
Minnie E.	May 1890
Emma C.	Apr. 1892		(Long)
Retta C. (June 1894)	Oct. 1892	April 6, 1984	(Herman Wilke)
Hanner (Hannah)	Apr. 1898	July 24, 1984	(Arthur Ridings)

Nancy Causey Cook was born on March 10, 1859 and died March 25, 1933 at the age of 73 years.

Sarah Jane had three children:

Barbara Causey	Feb. 27, 1892	Jan. 13, 1967	(Dave Long)
Mary Causey	Dec. 12, 1893	May 23, 1974	(Amos Fullbright)
Ida Causey			(Andrew Cook)

Sarah Causey then married a Hanners. She was born on Dec. 15, 1863 and died on Feb. 18, 1937 at the age of 74 years. Sarah is buried in Pulliam Cemetary as is her daughter, Ida Causey Cook. Barbara Causey Long and Mary Causey Fullbright are buried at Hurricane Fork Church Cemetary.

The Welker, Cook and Causey Connections

Leonard Welker who received land in Pennsylvania in 1772 and 1776, migrated to Lincoln County NC and came from there to Missouri with George Frederick Bollinger in 1800. His son, Henry Welker, got the Perry County land from the Land Office in Jackson, MO, in 1830. Henry Welker married Catherine Cook, daughter of Jacob Cook.

Jacob Cook applied for, but never got, a pension for his services during the American Revolution. Besides his daughter Catherine who married Henry Welker, he had a son, David Cook, who married Nancy Ann Causey, a sister to John and Sarah Jane Causey. Jacob Cook's other children included Elizabeth who married Benjamin Runyon, George Cook, Jacob Cook and Susan Cook.

Material on these families came from Ken Schlimme, 735 Mt. Auburn Road, Cape Girardeau, MO 63701

My great-great-great-grandfather was Michael Sigafus, Sr., born in Bucks County, PA, in 1818. The name Sigafus derives from Zigenfuss (also spelled Ziegenfuss, Ziegenfusz, etc.). Johann Jacob seems to have been the first Zigenfuss here. The name is uncommon among Palatine immigrants. Family oral history reports that the family came from the southern Rhine (Palatinate). History of Bucks County and surrounding area over the next century shows the spread of the family and the evolution of the name (Sickafoos, etc.). Will provide more detailed information as I find it. I'm in the process of sorting out as best as possible the various Zigenfuss connections in eastern PA from 1751 through the mid-19th century.

Notes:
My great-great-great-grandfather was Michael Sigafus, Sr., born in Bucks County, PA, in 1818. The name Sigafus derives from Zigenfuss (also spelled Ziegenfuss, Ziegenfusz, etc.). Johann Jacob seems to have been the first Zigenfuss here. The name is uncommon among Palatine immigrants. Family oral history reports that the family came from the southern Rhine (Palatinate). History of Bucks County and surrounding area over the next century shows the spread of the family and the evolution of the name (Sickafoos, etc.). Will provide more detailed information as I find it. I'm in the process of sorting out as best as possible the various Zigenfuss connections in eastern PA from 1751 through the mid-19th century.

Descendants of Martin Welker

Generation No. 4

4. LEONARD[4] WELKER (JOHAN JACOB[3], GEORGE[2], MARTIN[1]) was born Abt. 1745, and died Abt. 1816 in Bollinger County MO.. He married CATHERIN EDLINGER.

Notes for LEONARD WELKER:
Leonard Welker and his brother Jacob came to Bollinger County MO. from Rowan County NC. with the Bollinger Party in 1800 and settled on Caney Creek in Southeast Missouri.
Leonard previously lived in Union County, Pennsylvania. Leonard was a member of the Frontier Rangers during the Revolution. He seems to have left PA about 1787.

THE BOLLINGER MIGRATION TO THE LOUISIANA TERRITORY

George Frederick Bollinger, the eleventh descendant of Heinrich (Henry) Bollinger and Elizabeth Wohlraber came to what is now the state of Missouri in 1797 with a neighbor, John Mussgenug, also called "Moose", a young hunting companion.

They owned good riding horses and being adventuresome young men, traveled with their belongings strapped to their saddles. With the aid of their trusty rifles, they lived on the abundant game as they made their way to the small Spanish outpost of Cape Girardeau located on the west bank of the Mississippi River in Upper Louisiana Territory.

George F. soon became a friend of Louis Lorimier, the Commandant of the post. Lorirnier was impressed by the big jovial North Carolinian whom he considered to be an intelligent, religious, peace loving and obviously bearing the earmarks of a born leader. Lorimier was anxious to bring more settlers to this area and after much discussion he made an offer of land concessions to new settlers and a large tract of land to George F. Bollinger provid ed he could persuade other colonists from North Carolina to settle in the Cape Girardeau area. Lorimier explained that according to Spanish rules, settlers could locate on as much as 800 arpens of land (about 640 acres) upon the payment of $41.00, about five cents an arpen, which was the cost of having the land surveyed. Improvements were required and settlers were expected to become Permanent residents.

Lorimier's enthusiasm aroused George's interest and after some thought he agreed to accept the offer. Consequently, he returned to North Carolina and soon married Elizabeth Hunsucker, on her eighteenth

George F. soon became a friend of Louis Lorimier, the Commandant of the post. Lorimier was impressed by the big jovial North Carolinian whom he considered to be an intelligent, religious, peace loving and obviously bearing the earmarks of a born leader. Lorimier was anxious to bring more settlers to this area and after much discussion he made an offer of land concessions to new settlers and a large tract of land to George F. Bollinger provided he could persuade other colonists from North Carolina to settle in the Cape Girardeau area. Lorimier explained that according to Spanish rules, settlers could locate on as much as 800 arpens of land (about 640 acres) upon the payment of $311.00, about five cents an arpen, which was the cost of having the land surveyed. Improvements were required and settlers were expected to become Permanent residents.

Lorimier's enthusiasm aroused George's interest and after some thought he agreed to accept the offer. Consequently, he returned to North Carolina and soon married Elizabeth Hunsucker, on her eighteenth birthday. George Frederick called his relatives and friends together and used eloquent persuasion to convince four brothers, John, Daniel, Philip, Mathias and two nephews, Mann Henry Bollinger and William Bollinger to return to Missouri with him. Other friends and neighbors were Peter and Conrad Statler, Joseph Nyswonger, George and Peter Grount (Grounds), Peter Crytes, John and Jacob Cotner, John and Isaac Miller, Frederick Limbaugh, Leonard Welker and Frederick Slinkard families also decided to join with him as their leader to the new land rich in fertile soil, virgin timber and abounding with wild fruits, nuts and game, to be had almost for the asking.

They harvested their abundant crops in North Carolina in the fall of 1799, stocked their ox-carts and covered wagons with their belongings and all the provisions and food for their livestock that their wagons would hold; started on their perilous journey westward. They faced the almost unknown territory with strong hearts and great courage, hoping to cross their largest obstacle, the Mississippi River, on the ice, frozen solid in mid-winter.

George Frederick's wife, Elizabeth, was in poor health after giving birth to their only child, Sarah, in 1799. Elizabeth and Sarah were left behind with relatives that stayed in NC. Unfortunately, Elizabeth died and was buried in NC, never to see the land so glowingly described by her husband.

Many hardships were endured by the hardy little band of pioneers as they made their journey westward, moving forward a few miles each day, making and breaking camp each night, fording the small streams and floating across the larger ones on rafts which they made from the nearby trees, following roads that were barely trails thru forests and valleys.

With the superb leadership of George F., they arrived on the east bank of the Mississippi River opposite St. Genevieve in late December and pitched camp to explore the river crossing possibility. Their expectations were better than they had hoped for as winter had come early to this area and the river was already covered with ice. Now to determine if the ice was thick enough to support their wagons.

The bitter cold continued while they had determined that the ice was not yet thick enough for a crossing. Some of the men hunted for wild game to supplement their food supply while others kept busy cutting huge piles of logs to keep a roaring fire burning day and night to provide heat for warmth and for cooking. The older boys took care of their live stock, doling out the feed that they had brought with them. Daily the thickness of the ice was examined and on Dec. 31, 1799, a chopped hole in the ice indicated thickness well over two feet, A few trips across were made on foot and horseback inspecting the condition of the ice and with the advice of the experienced men of Ste. Genevieve, a decision was made that the ice would support a loaded wagon. A wagon was chosen to be driven across with no one riding and the driver would walk ahead watching the ice and leading his team. The trip across and back to camp was made without the ice cracking and preparations were made for an early crossing New Years Day, Jan. 1, 1800.

It was imperative that they cross as soon as possible to replenish their supplies, which were becoming low, at the village across the river. Jan. 1, 1800, everyone was awakened early. and breakfast was prepared and hurriedly eaten before daybreak. The final preparations were made to break camp and all supplies were loaded. The weather was bitter cold with dark skies overhead and light snow was failing, but the decision had been made to cross and there was no turning back. The group was devout German Reformed Protestants and they gathered together in the early cold gray dawn to seek guidance from their God for a safe crossing of this obstacle to their destination.

The cracking of whips like pistol shots rang out over the heads of the oxen to coax them out upon the ice; the crossing had began. All that were able, walked to lighten the loaded wagons, keeping a safe birthday. George Frederick called his relatives and friends together and used eloquent persuasion to convince four brothers, John, Daniel, Philip, Mathias and two nephews, Mann Henry Bollinger and William Bollinger to return to Missouri with him. Other friends and neighbors were Peter and Conrad Stutler, Joseph Nyswonger, George and Peter Groom (Grounds), Peter Cryder, John and Jacob Coner, John and Isaac Miller, Frederick Lambsedgh, Leonard Welker and Frederick Sinkhard families also decided to join with him as their leader to the new land rich in fertile soil, virgin timber and abounding with wild fruits, nuts and game, to be had almost for the asking.

Jan. 1, 1800, everyone was awakened early, and breakfast was prepared and hurriedly eaten before daybreak. The final preparations were made to break camp and all supplies were loaded. The weather was bitter cold with dark skies overhead and light snow was falling, but the decision had been made to cross and there was no turning back. The group was devout German Reformed Protestants and they gathered together in the early cold gray dawn to seek guidance from their God for a safe crossing of this obstacle to their destination.

The cracking of whips like pistol shots rang out over the heads of the oxen to coax them out upon the ice; the crossing had begun. All that were able, walked to lighten the loaded wagons, keeping a safe distance from the wagons, which were also spaced far apart to lessen the danger of breaking the ice. The crossing was made successfully with no mishaps, except extremely cold hands and feet.

The hardy townsfolk of St. Genevieve had built a large fire to warm and welcome the new pioneers. Safely across the Mississippi, they were relieved of their crossing fears and enjoyed the local hospitality. News from the East was exchanged for information of what they might expect ahead. Needed supplies were purchased and oven the weather abated as the sun broke thru the-overhead clouds. Bidding their newfound friends adieu, they happily set forth on the last part of their journey to find their new land. They all settled along the Big White-water River as the rich soil was to their liking. They located in family groups spaced along the river according to their anticipated needs.

They lived in their wagons with cramped quarters, but little complaining was done as they went about building corrals crudely covered to confine and protect their animals. Straight oak trees were felled to build each a cabin. The logs were expertly notched at the ends and fitted together making the logs lie as close together as possible. Cracks were chinked with mud and weeds or dried grass. Later, floors were made of split logs called puncheons, hewn as smooth as possible. Hides and blankets were hung over openings for doors and windows. Fireplaces were constructed by using native stone and mud. Clearing the land of trees along the river was started and some land was covered only with tall weeds and grass. Spring came early this year; garden seed was planted and the small cleared fields were planted with grain.. The fertile soil yielded bountiful crops and improvements were made on their homes and barns were built and filled at harvest time. The industrious band of pioneers continued to thrive and grow.

The Civil War

Perry County, Missouri

Although it experienced some scattered guerrilla activity, Perry County was spared much of the fighting which occurred in other counties of the Region. In a letter to Fort Davidson on September 14, 1864, Capt. Wm. T. Leeper opposed sending companies of men to Ste. Genevieve and Perry Counties because "they (the two counties) have been entirely at peace since the commencement of the war."

If Perry County escaped the bloodshed of the Civil War, it was not exempted from its impact on everyday life. In 1860 Perry County had a population of 9,128 and county residents owned 739 slaves. The economy of the county was largely agricultural, and slaves were used to help farm the land and perform household chores. The Emancipation Proclamation brought an end to slavery, and to a way of life for many county residents.

Visitors to the Brazeau Presbyterian Church, located in eastern Perry County, will find interesting examples of life during the Civil War period. The church was organized in 1819. A church was built on the site in Brazeau in 1833 and was replaces, in 1852, by the present church. The chairman of the building committee owned slaves and they were likely used to help fire the bricks for the structure. The early church roll included five African-Americans. A section of the upstairs balcony was reserved for slaves. The Brazeau Museum, located nearby, houses memorabilia of early life in the town, including a newspaper published the day President Lincoln was assassinated. The museum is open during the spring scenic drive, and upon request.

In nearby Frohna, visitors to the Saxon Lutheran Memorial can catch a glimpse of what living conditions were like for some of the slaves in the county. Here a log cabin, moved to the site from Brazeau, was used to house slaves by their owner. The tombstone of Bennett Murray, in the Campground Cemetery in southern Perry County, reminds visitors that the county was not completely free of guerrilla fighting. Murray was wounded and captured by Confederate soldiers in 1861, but escaped only to be killed by Confederate guerrillas on July 3, 1864.

The Seminary, of St. Mary of the Barrens in Perryville provides another perspective on the war. When the Union of the Confederacy instituted conscription, men owning more than 20 slaves were exempted from serving in the army. The Seminary was already well known and a number of southern landowners sent their sons here, both for an education, and to escape the dangers of the war. Father Abram J. Ryan taught at the seminary at the outbreak of the war. A southern

Cape Girardeau County, Missouri

Cape Girardeau county occupies a strategic location on the Mississippi River, a major artery used for transporting troops and supplies during the Civil War. The county was the scene of fierce and continued fighting during the Civil War. A number of well preserved structures and sites remain in Cape Girardeau County to help guide visitors through the tumultuous years of the Civil War.

The City of Cape Girardeau was taken possession of by Federal forces under Colonel Marsh and the 20th Illinois Regiment in July, 1861 and remained under Union control throughout the war. Here Marsh built four forts and named them A,B,C, and D. Fort D was the most heavily armed and was the only fort not leveled after the war. The fort, located at the corner of Locust Street and Fort Street, is now a city park. The fort contained both 24 and 32 pound cannons that could fire across the Mississippi River. Only once during the war did Fort D fire upon Confederate gunboats coming up the river. Fort B was located on a hill on what is now the campus of Southeast Missouri State University.

The Common Pleas Courthouse, located on Spanish Street. was erected in 1854. The courthouse is located atop a terraced hill overlooking the Mississippi River. During the Civil War the courthouse served as headquarters for the provost marshal and as a jail for Confederate prisoners. A Union monument and fountain on the grounds feature a statue of a Union soldier. A Confederate war memorial, erected in 1931, was recently moved to the courthouse grounds. The monument, fashioned of Georgia marble, stands over 14 feet high.

East of the courthouse, at 19 North Water Street, visit the building that was used by General Ulysses S. Grant as his headquarters during his stay in Cape Girardeau. The building is over 150 years old and houses the popular Port Cape Girardeau Restaurant. Nearby, explore the Old Lorimier Cemetery. Located on Fountain Street, the six acre cemetery was established by Don Louis Lorimier in 1820 and contains the graves of veterans of both the Revolutionary and Civil War. Many of the graves, though, are unmarked.

The Minton House, located at 444 Washington Street, was built in 1846. The brick house

The Hilton House, located at 444 Washington Street, was built in 1846. The brick house with stucco exterior, is one of the oldest houses in Cape Girardeau. The house was occupied at the outbreak of the war by Matthew H. Moore, a prominent lawyer and publisher of the Cape Girardeau Weekly. During the war the house was used as a Union smallpox hospital.

Nearby the City of Jackson was the scene of bustling military activity during the war. At the entrance to the Jackson Cemetery a massive stone monument marks the final resting place of Confederate Colonel William L. Jeffers who enlisted in Jackson in 1861.

Further west, visit Bollinger Mill State Historic Site. The original mill was owned by Samuel and George Daugherty at the outbreak of the war. Staunch southern sympathizers, the Daugherty's supplied rebel troops with flour. The mill was burned by Federal troops in September, 1861. The current three story brick millhouse was built in 1868. The covered bridge, built on two massive stone piers, was begun in 1860, but work on the bridge was interrupted by the war.

Books

Several books on the families of Perry County are also available. The most well-known is probably "Maryland Catholics on the Frontier" by Tim O'Rourke, found in many libraries. These books are usually handled privately by the authors.

Currently available is "Branches of the PINGEL FAMILY" by Carrol Geerling, 1992, tracing this family from Westphalia to Missouri. The book is 198 pages, offset printed on acid free paper, completely indexed, and includes many old pictures. Other local names featured are WINGERTER, ZOELLNER, LAPPE, HOTOP, GERINGER, UNTERREINER, HEMERICH, PONDER, WIBBENMEYER, SCHNURBUSCH, SCHUMER, SCHULTE, KUTZ, etc. The price is $ 30 hardcover, postage paid (a few softcover copies remain for $ 25). You can e-mail Carrol at pgeerling@juno.com. She maintains a computer database centering on the German Catholic families who settled Apple Creek and Biehle, and is always glad to answer questions or receive family information to include.

Coming next year: a History of Friedenberg, Missouri, including data on "Hill of Peace" Historical Site, plus many histories of the local families attempting to reconstruct the records of Peace Lutheran Church lost in a disastrous fire in the 1940's. This book will be hardbound, about 350 pages, with over 100 old pictures, and is projected to sell initially for $ 25. Pre-orders will soon be taken, for the limited number of copies available. Direct your questions of this project to Carrol Geerling (pgeerling@juno.com).

Jim, thanks for the information...I began genealogy in the 60's when I delivered a party order to a Tupperware hostess and she was on bouncing off the wall because she had received a picture of her great grandmother that day in the mail. She was LDS and encouraged me to get information from grandparents before they were gone. It set us in motion...Jack is interested in the hobby also, I say I am blessed, so many do not have the fun we have going places and researching. I began teaching a Basic Genealogy class at the local votech before I retired in Aug 98 and since then we both have been teaching. I teach Basic Genealogy and Family Tree Maker two evenings a week and Jack teaches Genealogy on the Internet one evening. It has been a joy meeting people who have the same interest and teaching new ones...they get so excited when they find a new cousin, it is amazing! Jack worked for Phillips Petroleum Company for 38 years until the layoff in 91, so he had a few years of doing what he wanted before I retired...of, course, family demands, a step mother who got into scams, a father who had heart problems and becoming the executer/caretaker of his father's family has also kept him busy. I sold Tupperware for 27 years while the children were growing up, then worked at the local county courthouse for 4 years, then finished at Phillips as a professional secretary in the training area. We have 3 grown children, (2 live here in town), four grandchildren (ages 22,20, 5 and 9 months!), and four great-grandchildren (ages 4,3,2,and 1 yesterday). The 22 year old grandson has yours, mine and ours children! All live here except our "middle school teacher" daughter who married last summer at the age of 41! Needless to say it is a busy family with lots of challenges, Grandma can I borrow your car, can you babysit with the kids, and what time of day are we having (Thanksgiving, Christmas, or other celebration) at your house!

I felt that it would be wonderful to do something that we both enjoyed during our retirement (if we could call it that!) and genealogy has really been great. Got two new computers in November and we are both connected to the Internet now. I have started a small home business, helping seniors with their computer problems related to genealogy -- file management, FTM files, moving programs from old to new computer, etc. Jack says it is NOT his business, but helps research needed information when I need it --that is his strength. Better close, so good to hear from you cousin...will be talking more...by the way, Carrie Arnspiger Taylor who you have corresponded with also is a close cousin, she is from one of the AMB Walcher line and I am from the CDL line, as you can see, all but the last brother, Rush, had 3 names. I know I will be having many questions later. Right now am snowed with classes and getting ready for the reunion in May. Again thanks for putting the info on the Net and returning my message...this medium has become the greatest things, as a friend of mine says "since sliced bread" Keep up the good work, cousin! Your cousin, barb

Book, Sons of the Revolution SHIREOAKS, a chapelry, in the parish and union of WORKSOP, wapentake of BASSETLAW, N. division of the county of NOTTINGHAM, 3½ miles (W.N.W.) from the town of Worksop; containing 100 inhabitants. The living is a perpetual curacy; net income, £90; patron, the Duke of Newcastle. SHIRLEY (ST. MICHAEL), a parish, in the hundred of APPLETREE, S. division of the county of DERBY, 4¼ miles (S.E. by S.) from Ashbourn, on the road to Derby; containing, with the townships of Stydd and Yeaveley, 599 inhabitants. Shirley is so called from the Saxon, signifying "a clear place or pasture;" and gives name to a family which has for ages been considered one of the most honourable in the county. Part of the lands still belong to the Shirleys, who are now represented by Earl Ferrers. The parish comprises 1598a. 3r. 29p. of land, mostly pasture. The ancient Hall, now converted into a farmhouse, still retains features of its original character; and the moat by which it was surrounded is yet remaining. The park, recently purchased by Fraucis Wright, Esq., exhibits very beautiful woodland scenery. The living is a discharged vicarage endowed with the rectorial tithes, with the chapelry of Yeaveley, and valued in the king's books at £6. 13. 4.; patron, Earl Ferrers. The tithes have been commuted for £153. 17., and the glebe comprises 9 acres, with a parsonage-house, built in 1827, by the late vicar, the Rev. Walter Augustus Shirley, archdeacon of Derby, afterwards bishop of Sodor and Man, who died in 1847. The church is a small building with a tower; the body is of the 14th or 15th century: a north aisle was added in 1843, at a cost of about £800. In the churchyard is a remarkable yew-tree. A school-house has been lately built. SHIRLEY, a township, in the parish of AYMESTREY, union of LEOMINSTER, hundred of WIGMORE, county of HEREFORD; containing 40 inhabitants. SHIRLEY, an ecclesiastical district, in the parish of MILLBROOK, union of SOUTH STONEHAM, hundred of BUDDLESGATE, Southampton and S. divisions of the county of SOUTHAMPTON, 2 miles (N.N.W.) from Southampton; containing 2500 inhabitants. This district includes the village of Shirley; part of the village of Hill or Four-Posts, on the shore of the Southampton Water; the hamlets of Cocksford and Aldermoor; and Shirley Common, a spacious tract recently inclosed. The soil in the upper portions is generally gravel and light mould; and in the lower, gravel, alternated with clay and sand. The surface is boldly varied, extending chiefly over two hills near the Salisbury road; the higher grounds command fine views of the Isle of Wight, the Southampton Water, and the New Forest. The air is remarkably salubrious. A vineyard has been planted by Mr. Clement Hoare, on Shirley warren, where that gentleman hopes to bring vines of every kind to perfection. Part of the common has been appropriated for building, and several handsome houses have been already erected; there are a brewery, and a manufactory of agricultural implements, in the village. The church was erected and endowed in 1836, by the Rev. W. Orger; it is a handsome structure in the later English style, with a square embattled tower, and contains 1080 sittings, of which 432 are free. A neat parsonage-house has been erected in a beautiful situation. There is a place of worship for Wesleyans; and schools connected with the Church are supported by subscription. Robert Pollok, author of the Course of Time, died here in September, 1827. SHIRLEY, a tything, in the parish of SOPLEY, union and hundred of CHRISTCHURCH, Ringwood and S. divisions of the county of SOUTHAMPTON; containing 149 inhabitants. SHIRLEY-STREET, an ecclesiastical district, in the parish and union of SOLIHULL, Solihull division of the hundred of HEMLINGFORD, N. division of the county of WARWICK, 6 miles (S.) from Birmingham; containing 1009 inhabitants. The church, dedicated to St. James, was erected in 1832, at a cost of £1500, raised by subscription; it is a neat structure with a campanile turret, and contains 506 sittings, of which 306 are free. The living is a perpetual curacy, in the patronage of the Rector of Solihull; net income, £120, of which £45 are derived from the mother church, and £72 granted by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. Attached to the church is a good parsonage-house; and a national school for boys and girls is supported from the proceeds of the parochial charity estates. SHITLINGTON (ALL SAINTS), a parish, in the union of AMPTHILL, partly in the hundred of CLIFTON, and partly in that of FLITT, county of BEDFORD, 4 miles (E.S.E.) from Silsoe; containing, with the hamlets of Holwell and Lower Stondon, 1411 inhabitants. The living is a discharged vicarage, valued in the king's books at £18; net income, £128; patrons and impropriators, the Master and Fellows of Trinity College, Cambridge. The tithes were commuted for land and a money payment in 1802. The church is a large and handsome edifice; the tower was rebuilt by the parishioners in 1750. SHITLINGTON, a township, in the parish of THORNHILL, union of WAKEFIELD, Lower division of the wapentake of AGBRIGG, W. riding of YORK, 5¾ miles (S.W. by W.) from Wakefield; containing 2164 inhabitants. It is situated on the road from Wakefield to Huddersfield, in the fertile and picturesque valley of the Calder; and comprises about 3280 acres. The soil is rich, and the substratum abounds with excellent coal, which is extensively worked. Coke is made in abundance, for the supply of the railways; and there are some quarries of good building-stone, the produce of which, and of the collieries, is sent to the East riding and to London, by the Calder and Hebble navigation. The woollen manufacture is carried on at Middle, Over, and Nether Shitlington. There are places of worship for Wesleyans at Middle and Nether Shitlington. SHITLINGTON, HIGH, a township, in the parish of WARK, union of BELLINGHAM, N. W. division of TINDALE ward, S. division of the county of NORTHUMBERLAND, 3 miles (W.) from Wark; containing 106 inhabitants. This place and Low Shitlington form the northern division of the parish. SHITLINGTON, LOW, a township, in the parish of WARK, union of BELLINGHAM, N. W. division of TINDALE ward, S. division of NORTHUMBERLAND, 2½ miles (W. by N.) from Wark; with 72 inhabitants. SHITTERTON, a tything, in the parish and hundred of BEER-REGIS, poor-law union of WAREHAM and PURBECK, Wareham division of the county of DORSET; containing 225 inhabitants. SHOBDON (ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST), a parish, in the union of LEOMINSTER, hundred of STRETFORD, county of HEREFORD, 5½ miles (E.S.E.) from Presteign; containing 491 inhabitants. The parish is intersected by the road between Ludlow and Kington, and comprises 3491 acres. The living is a rectory, valued in the king's books at £5. 7. 11.; net income, £764; patron, Lord Bateman. The church, which is the burial-place of the Bateman family, was partially rebuilt in 1757, by John, Viscount Bateman. The rent of several acres of land, and the proceeds of some minor benefactions, are distributed among the poor. Near the church is a mount called Castle Hill, encompassed with a moat, supposed to be the remains of a Roman or Danish fortification. SHOBROOKE, a parish, in the union of CREDITON, hundred of WEST BUDLEIGH, Crediton and N. divisions of DEVON, 2 miles (E.N.E.) from Crediton; containing 787 inhabitants. Some of the females are employed in hand-loom weaving at their own homes. The living is a rectory, annexed to the bishopric of Exeter, and valued in the king's books at £36. The church is an ancient structure, with a handsome tower. There is a place of worship for Independents. SHOBY, an extra-parochial place, in the union of MELTON-MOWBRAY, hundred of EAST GOSCOTE, N. division of the county of LEICESTER, 5 miles (W. by N.) from Melton-Mowbray; containing 35 inhabitants. SHOCKLACH (ST. EDITH), a parish, in the union of WREXHAM, Higher division of the hundred of BROXTON, S. division of the county of CHESTER; containing 427 inhabitants, of whom 178 are in the township of Church-Shocklach, 4½ miles (N.W. by W.), and 180 in that of Oviatt-Shocklach, 3½ (W.N.W.), from Malpas. The parish comprises 2870 acres, the soil of which is clay; and is bounded on the west by the river Dee. At Castletown, the residence of Leigh Weaver, Esq., is the moated site of Shocklach Castle. The living is a perpetual curacy, in the gift of Sir R. Puleston, Bart.: the great tithes have been commuted for £240, and those of the incumbent for £100; the incumbent has a glebe of an acre and three-quarters. The church is a small building, with an enriched Norman door. Opposite to the south door is the shaft of an ancient cross. SHODDESDEN, LOWER and UPPER, hamlets, in the parish of KIMPTON, union and hundred of ANDOVER, Andover and N. divisions of HAMPSHIRE; containing 59 and 45 inhabitants, respectively. SHOEBURY, NORTH (ST. MARY), a parish, in the union and hundred of ROCHFORD, S. division of ESSEX, 3¼ miles (E.N.E.) from Southend; containing 202 inhabitants. It is bounded on the south by the parish of South Shoebury, and the two villages are nearly contiguous. The living is a discharged vicarage, valued in the king's books at £9, and in the patronage of the Crown: the impropriate tithes, belonging to Mrs. James, have been commuted for £347, and the vicarial for £163; the glebe comprises 10 acres. The church, a small ancient edifice with a tower and spire, contains a handsome monument to John Ibbotson, who was secretary to the admiralty. SHOEBURY, SOUTH (ST. ANDREW), a parish, in the union and hundred of ROCHFORD, S. division of ESSEX, 4 miles (E.) from Southend; containing 164 inhabitants. The parish is situated on the river Thames, nearly opposite to the Nore: at its southern extremity is a small promontory called Shoebury Ness, on which is a signal station. The living is a rectory, valued in the king's books at £14. 13. 4., and in the gift of R. Bristow, Esq.: the tithes have been commuted for £410, and the glebe comprises 7 acres. The church has a tower of flint surmounted by a spire SHOLING, a tything, in the parish of HOUND, union of SOUTH STONEHAM, hundred of MAINSBRIDGE, Southampton and S. divisions of the county of SOUTHAMPTON; containing 60 inhabitants. SHOPLAND (ST. MARY MAGDALENE), a parish, in the union and hundred of ROCHFORD, S. division of ESSEX, 2 miles (S.E.) from Rochford; containing 43 inhabitants. It comprises 1039a. 3r. 9p., of which 760 acres are arable, and 127 pasture. The living is a discharged vicarage, valued in the king's books at £9, and in the gift of the family of Quarington: the impropriate tithes have been commuted for £240. 10., and the vicarial for £85; the glebe comprises 13 acres. The church is a small edifice, consisting of a nave and chancel. SHOREDITCH (ST. LEONARD), a parish, in the Tower division of the hundred of OSSULSTONE, county of MIDDLESEX; forming a north-eastern portion of the metropolis, and, with Haggerston and Hoxton (which see), containing 83,432 inhabitants. This place, in ancient records called Sordig, Soresdich, and Shordych, appears to have been so designated from the great common sewer, or ditch, which passed through the district. It seems to have given name to the family of Sir John de Sordig, lord of the manor, and one of the ambassadors of Edward III. to Philip of France. The Roman military way leading from London-wall to the ford at Hackney intersected what is now the churchyard; and some vestiges still remain of the old artillery-ground (originally a Roman Campus Martis), which was celebrated for archery and other military exercises practised there by the citizens of London, but which is now covered with houses. The parish is very extensive, consisting of numerous streets adjoining the city, and of several was partially rebuilt in 1757, by Asher, Viscount Barrington. The rent of several acres of land, and the proceeds of some minor benefactions, are distributed among the poor. Near the church is a manor called Coult Hall, encompassed with a moat, supposed to be the mansion of a Roman or Danish proprietor. SHOBROOKE, a parish, in the union of CREDITON, hundred of HAYDOR, Crediton and N. divisions of DEVON, 2 miles (E.N.E.) from Crediton; containing 787 inhabitants. Some of the females are employed in hand-loom weaving at their own homes. The living is a rectory, annexed to the bishopric of Exeter, and valued in the king's books at £36. The church is an ancient structure, with a handsome tower. There is a place of worship for Independents. SHODY, an extra-parochial place, in the union of MALTON-MORPEATH, hundred of EAST GOSCOTE, N. division of the county of LEICESTER, 5 miles (E. by N.) from Melton-Mowbray; containing 35 inhabitants. SHOEDALCH (ST. EDITH), a parish, in the union of HERTFORD, Hitchin division of the hundred of BROADTON, S. division of the county of CHESTER; containing 127 inhabitants, of whom 103 are in the township of Church-Shocklach, 4½ miles (W.N.W. by W.), and 180 in that of Great Shocklach, 3½ (W.N.W.), from Malpas. The parish comprises 2579 acres, the soil of which is clay; and is bounded on the west by the river Dee. At Coulstanton, the residence of Leigh Broome, Esq., is the moated site of Shocklach Castle. The living is a perpetual curacy, in the gift of Sir R. Pulestone, Bart.; the great tithes have been commuted for £240, and those of the incumbent for £100; the incumbent has a glebe of an acre and three quarters. The church is a small building, with an ancient Norman door. Opposite to the south door is the shaft of an ancient cross. SHOEDISDEN, LOWER and UPPER, hamlets, in the parish of STAMFORD, union and hundred of ANDOVER, Andover and N. divisions of HAMPSHIRE; containing 59 and 43 inhabitants, respectively. SHOEBURY, NORTH (ST. MARY), a parish, in the union and hundred of ROCHFORD, S. division of ESSEX, 3½ miles (E.N.E.) from Southend; containing 2012 inhabitants. It is bounded on the south by the parish of South Shoebury, and the two villages are nearly contiguous. The living is a discharged vicarage, valued in the king's books at £9, and in the patronage of the Crown: the impropriate tithes, belonging to Mrs. Jones, have been commuted for £247, and the vicarial for £183; the glebe comprises 10 acres. The church, a small ancient edifice with a tower and spire, contains a handsome monument to John Johnson, who was secretary to the admiralty. SHOEBURY, SOUTH (ST. ANDREW), a parish, in the union and hundred of ROCHFORD, S. division of ESSEX, 4 miles (E.) from Southend; containing 164 inhabitants. The parish is situated on the river Thames, nearly opposite to the Nore; at its southern extremity is a small promontory, called Shoebury Ness, on which is a signal station. The living is a rectory, valued in the king's books at £14. 13s. 4d., and in the gift of R. Bristow, Esq.; the tithes have been commuted for £410, and the glebe comprises 7 acres. The church has a tower of flint surmounted by a spire. SHOELAND, a township, in the parish of HOLDY, union of SOUTH STONEHAM, hundred of MANSBRIDGE, Southampton and S. divisions of the county of SOUTHAMPTON; containing 60 inhabitants. SHOELANDS (ST. MARY MAGDALENE), a parish, in the union and hundred of ROCHFORD, S. division of ESSEX, 2 miles (S.E.) from Rochford; containing 43 inhabitants. It comprises 1034a. 3r. 9p., of which 750 acres are arable, and 277 pasture. The living is a discharged vicarage, valued in the king's books at £8, and in the gift of the family of Dimsdale; the impropriate tithes have been commuted for £410. 10s., and the vicarial for £85; the glebe comprises 13 acres. The church is a small edifice, consisting of a nave and chancel. SHORADITCH (ST. LAWRENCE), a parish, in the Tower division of the hundred of OSSULSTONE, county of MIDDLESEX; forming a north-eastern portion of the metropolis, and with Hoggesdon and Hoxton (which see), containing 83,432 inhabitants. This place, in ancient records called Soredich, Soreditch, and Shoreditch, appears to have been so designated from the great common sewer, or ditch, which passed through the district. It serves to have given name to the family of Sir John de Soredich, lord of the manor, and one of the ambassadors of Edward III. to Philip of France. WELKER, MARTIN, lawyer, jurist, congressman, governor, educator, was born April 25, 1819, in Knox county, Ohio. In 1851 he was elected a judge of the common pleas for the sixth district, serving five years. In 1857 he moved to Wooster, and was elected lieutenant-governor of Ohio, declining a renomination. In 1861 he was appointed a judge advocate, with the rank of major; and was soon afterwards appointed aide-de-camp and acting judge advocate-general, with the rank of colonel, under the governor of the state. In 1862 he was an assistant adjutant-general, and superintended the draft of the state. In 1864 he was elected a representative from Ohio to the thirty-ninth congress. He was re-elected to the fortieth and forty-first congresses as a republican, and in 1873 was appointed United States judge for the northern district of Ohio. He afterward became professor of political science, and of constitutional and international law in Wooster university.

Tennessee the Volunteer State 1769-1923: Volume 3
VICTOR ROBERTSON WILLIAMS

On the 21st of April, 1904, in Nashville, was celebrated the marriage of Victor R. Williams and Mrs. Clara Vaughan, the daughter of John and Dora (Blake) Walker, the former a native of Indiana and the latter of Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Williams have become the parents of two children: Victoria Felicia, born in 1907; and Clara Walker, born in 1911.

Charmaine, thank you for replying, I am not as far along with this line as you are...after I check out the 1900 and 1910 census for Perry Co, MO will know a bit more...we have one cousin left in the family who visited with her grandparents, Daniel and Rebecca, in the 30's, but she doesn't know much about them. Do know that their daughter, my gggrandmother, Elizabeth "Lucretia" Welker was born in Perry Co in 1839. Will keep your info in my file and let you know when I know a bit more...hopefully before too long. You know how getting microfilm takes! Again thanks for replying...

Charmaine, thank you for replying. I am not as far along with this line as you are...after I check out the 1830 and 1840 census for Perry Co, MO will know a bit more...we have one young lady left in the family who visited with her grandparents, Daniel and Rebecca, in the 30's, but she doesn't know much about them. I know that their daughter, my great-mother, Elizabeth "Lucretia" Walker was born in Perry Co in 1842. Will keep your info in my file and let you know when I know a bit more...hopefully before big land. You seem few getting microfilm travel. Again thanks for replying...

I'm sorry that I didn't answer sooner, I find if I don't answer e-mail right away it gets lost in the shuffel.

I have known that there was a branch of the WELKER family that ended up in Perry Co MO, but don't have any information on them. By the time of the 1790 census there were several families of WELKER/WELCKER in PA and a little later a group migrated to NC. Some of the PA people moved westward into OH. My hsband's ancestor Daniel b in PA came to Jefferson Co KY before 1808, as he was married there in that year, they moved to Floyd Co IN (later Harrison Co) before 1820. There appears to be 2 families in Putnam Co IN before 1850, part of them are sons of my husband's ancestor, but the others belong to the family of another Daniel.

I have always thought it unusual that the given name Daniel is so oftne used in the early Welker families. It just isn't a common German given name.

When does your Daniel and Rebecca 1st show up in Perry Co? I would very much like to exchange information with you. cgw

I'm sorry that I didn't answer sooner, I find it I don't answer e-mail right away it gets lost in the shuffle.

I have known that there was a branch of the WALKER family that moved to in Perry Co MO, but don't have any information on them. By the time of the 1790 census there were several families of WALKER/WALKER in PA and a little later a group moved to NC. Some of the PA people moved westward into TN. My husband's ancestor Samuel b in PA came to Jefferson Co TN before 1808, he had married there in that year. They moved to Floyd Co IN (Jeff Barrison for McFole 1810). There appears to be a family in Putnam Co IN before 1820, part of them are some of my husband's ancestors, but the others belong to the family of another owner.

I have always thought it unusual that the given name Daniel is so prime name in the early Walker families. It just isn't a common German given name.

When does your Daniel and Rebecca get added up in Perry Co? I would very much like to exchange information with you. Don

NORTH CAROLINA STATE ARCHIVES
109 East Jones Street
RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA 27611

To Whom It May Concern:

I wish a certified copy of the original will of GEORGE W. WELKER - GUILFORD COUNTY- WILL BOOK VOL "F", PAGE 340. He died in 1894. Please include copies of the complete packette.

I am enclosing $5.00 for the Search and Handling Fee for this will. I am also enclosing a copy of a self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience in advising me the cost of the copies.

Thank you for your promptness.

Sincerely,

SEARCH AND HANDLING FEE

Since October 1978 the North Carolina State Archives has required the payment of a Search and Handling Fee before replying to inquiries received from researchers living in states other than North Carolina. The limits of the fee are established by statute; at present the fee is $5.00 for each inquiry about one record or one person's record. The Search and Handling Fee is to accompany the request for information, and will be in addition to any cost that may be involved in copying a record. Mailed payments should be by check or money order rather than cash. Please make check payable to North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources. The report of the search will include a statement of copying costs.

Over the years the Archives has created and made nationally available various lists, indexes, and abstracts. Many researchers throughout the nation consult these and other lists, indexes, and abstracts, and consider that the information obtained (which is frequently out-of-date) is sufficient search. What the North Carolina State Archives considers a search involves locating the actual record, examining it to determine what form of copying and how many copies it will require to reproduce the record, flagging the record for subsequent copying, making a reply on a standard form, and subsequently processing the order for a copy. If the search is negative, this process concludes with the original search and negative report. The Search and Handling Fee helps defray the cost to the taxpayers of North Carolina in rendering this service to non-residents of the state.

The search for records and the copying of records are two separate processes and must be paid for separately. Researchers are requested not to add an estimated cost of copying in their check paying the Search and Handling Fee. ESTIMATED PAYMENTS MUST BE RETURNED, thus delaying a reply to the researcher's inquiry.

The primary concern of the State Archives is to preserve and protect the public records of the State of North Carolina and its hundred counties, and to make them available in the Search Room. The Archives is neither authorized nor staffed to engage in genealogical research.

1. The Archives CAN respond to requests for records such as:

   a. Do you have record of Revolutionary War (or Confederate) service by Elijah Coor of Craven County?

   b. Do you have a marriage bond for Elijah Coor and Grace Jones, about 1800?

   c. Do you have a will or estate record for Elijah Coor of Craven County, about 1840?

   d. Does the 1850 Census Index for N. C. report the surname Coor?

   e. Does the record of probate of the will of Elijah Coor appear in the Craven County court minutes for May Term 1840?

2. The Archives CANNOT respond to requests for genealogical research and general research such as:

   a. Who were the parents of Elijah Coor born in Craven County about 1755?

   b. Who were the children of Elijah Coor of Craven County, 1800-1840? (Ask instead for a will or estate and hope that the children will be named there.)

   c. Please search for the brothers and sisters of Elijah Coor of Craven County during the last half of the eighteenth century.

   d. Please send me a copy of all the Coor wills (or estate records, or marriage bonds, or any other series of records) found in the Craven County records in your custody.

   e. Please send me anything about Elijah Coor, Craven County, 1755-1840. (A specific record must be requested.)

3. There are three standard sources checked by the Archives when searching for the service record of a Revolutionary War or Civil War soldier. REVOLUTION: Revolutionary Army accounts; Revolutionary War vouchers; and The Colonial and State Records of North Carolina. (Since Revolutionary War pension applications are federal records, researchers will write to the National Archives, Washington, D.C., 20408, for the information.) CIVIL WAR: Civil War pension applications; Moore's Roster of North Carolina Troops in the War Between The States; and North Carolina Troops, 1861-1865: A Roster. The three sources are always checked for each inquiry for a service record, and it is not necessary to request a search for each of the sources individually.

4. The Archives continues to follow its longstanding practice of answering one specific question about one record or one person's record in one letter.

No. 79.—PROBATE OF WILL.—Edwards & Broughton, Printers and Binders, Raleigh.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, } ss. In the Superior Court.

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George William Welker deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Emily Jane Welker, the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said George William Welker ~~by the oath and examination of J. R. H~~ J. R. Jones the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposeth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George William Welker that the said George William Welker in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 27th day of August, 1897.

And the deponent further saith, That the said George William Welker the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto. And this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said George William Welker was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

J. R. Woods

J. R. Jones

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 17 day of Aug, 18 7, before me.

Clerk Superior Court.

NORTH CAROLINA, } ss. IN THE SUPERIOR COURT.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of ....., deceased. Let the said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This ..... day of ....., 18.....

Clerk Superior Court.

And it is further proven by the oath and examination of J.R. Woods and J.R. Jones after each being duly sworn, that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said George William Walker having often times seen him write, and that the paper writing accompanying the last will and testament is in the own proper handwriting of the said George William Walker, and the signature to said paper writing is also in the own proper handwriting of the said George William Walker.

C.S.C.

I Rev. William Welker, Minister of the gospel, of Clay township, Guilford County, State of North Carolina do make this my last will - I give, devise and bequeath my estate and property real and personal as follows. that is to say I bequeath to my wife Emily Jane all my Household and Kitchen property together with my horses, mules wagons, carriages, farming tools, cattle, sheep and hogs for her use during her lifetime and for the benefit of our minor children with the right to sell any part thereof that she may not need. I also bequeath to my wife Emily Jane all the money, proceeds of notes, or other papers that I may hold at the time of my death to her own use and to keep up the old Home for the children, after all my debts are paid together with the expenses of my burial. I also bequeath to the said Emily Jane my wife the dividends that may accrue from the twenty shares of stock which I hold in the North Carolina Rail Road and of the one hundred shares that I hold of the stock of the Bank of Guilford to enable her to rear and educate our minor children.

As I have already provided for the children of my previous marriages Homes by gift & conveyance of real estate to an amount that I deem a fair part of my real estate by to W. A. Welker, Maria E. Hoffman, Mary J. Starr, Sarah L. Shaw and Lula A. Strauss and I now devise the real estate held by me at the time of my death the John place shall belong to my daughter Mabel B. Welker, the Shuck tract to Ernest R. Welker, the Rees tract belong to Mary A. S. Welker, that Herman Everett Welker have the Home place while the Cousins that shall belong to Joseph E. Welker my grandson My Executors on the death of my wife shall proceed to sell my one fourth interest in the Shaw's Mill property. My stock in the North Carolina Rail Road and my 100 shares in the Bank of Guilford stock together with all personal property not heretofore exempted & collect all debts that may be due the estate & of these assets pay $100 to my grandson Joseph E. Welker – $50. to my son Herman W. Welker and $50 to my daughter Mary A. S. Welker and the balance be equally divided among my heirs.

I will that the bedding, beds & clothing prepared by my wife for the children shall not be sold by the Executors of this will – that my ornaments, gold and all such personal articles shall be divided ~~with~~ all dress clothing etc shall be fairly divided among all my children and not put on sale. Such books as I have allotted in a memorandum that accompanies this will, shall belong to my several children when they may choose to claim them.

I will that my Library be not sold but remain in the care of my wife during her life time & after her death in that of my son Herman Wendel Welker until such time as I have directed in a separate paper they may be disposed of.

I appoint my wife Emily Jane Executor of this will so much of it as may be executed in her life time and on her death I appoint my sons William A. Welker & John T. Welker to complete its execution.

I pray God's blessing on my wife and children and assure them that I have done in this will what I believe right & best & beg them to live peacably & lovingly among each other – be kindly, gently by each other & so live as to honor my memory & join me after

to live peacably & lovingly among each other - be kindly, gently by each other & so live as to honor my memory & join me after death in a higher & better life

In witness whereof I have signed and sealed this instrument as my will at my Home on this the twenty-seventh day of August 1892

George William Welker (Seal)

The said G. William Welker at his home in Clay Township on the day above written signed and sealed the above instrument and published and declared the same as and for his last will. And we, at his request, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto written our names as subscribing witnesses.

Carl. Carl the Emigrant. Our countrymen & Kenneth Forbes
14. There of course are not of equal value to each child but are given as special gifts & in the division of the other Books all should be made as nearly equal in value as possible.
15. I have done what I believed right in my will & I do not wish any one of my children to make any trouble about it. If you do well God will bless you & you will have enough & if you do not well & God do not bless you if you had all it would not profit or satisfy you.

11. Should more than one become entitled to my

16 Should more than one become entitled to my Theological Library by becoming preachers in a Reformed Church then let several dezenterated ministers divide them as they deem best.

17 Should there be any books & papers that none of my heirs would care to have let them be sold but as I have many printed sermons, efforts, reports &c &c bound together if any Reformed College, Seminary or Society will take them arrange them & bind them give them to it.

18 Should I die without having placed any monument to the memory of my beloved wife Louisa or to that of Jessie Abigail be sure to have it done & by no means suffer the grave of my wife Emily Jane to be without a monument.

I am looking for the parents of James William WELKER.
James William was born in 1862 in Indiana and died in 1927 in Vigo Park, Tx.

He married Julia Ettie TOSSIER iin 1886.
This couple came to Tx from Indiana or Illinois.
James' brother John and his family followed James to TX a few years later.
I don't have any clue to where the parents of these men are from...on a census it states that their father was from Kentucky and mother was from Ohio.
A source has listed descendants to be Joe WELKER marrying a Mary WALTON and I also have the name Jacob WELKER. I don't know which one came first,
Joe or Jacob! I just have the names.
Since James William was born in 1862, John was born in1861, this would make the father born around the 1840's
Is there any one out there who can help??
Thanks...Michelle

Hi John
Thanks for writing
My WELKER line is a tough nut to crack
So far it is not proven
This is the most probable line
1) Valentine
2) Valentine
3) John
4) Elizabeth b 1812
At that point I lose the WELKER name
I don't have anything in my files past John's children
None born after 1825--No Elizabeth or Lucretia's
(Eliz. is such a nice COMMON name!!! AGGGHHH!)
I will certainly keep your info in mind
Funny you mention Perry Co
Up until last week (working for 18 years) I haven't had a single ancestor who even set foot in Perry Co
Now I have a SWARTZ=PETERS connection from New Bloomfield!
Keep in touch, John
Marc

Marc, so glad to see your note on the web...Would like to know what you information you have on the following:
146. John ? Welker
147. Elizabeth? Welker
292. Valentine Welker
293. Susannah Welker
585. Elizabeth Ann Welker

My great grandmother was Elizabeth "Lucretia" Welker born in Perry Co, MO, 20 May 1839.
Her father was Daniel and mother, Rebecca. Do not have any other information at this time, but know the German line is very strong in this line.

Looking forward to hearing from you.
